

Miss Mary Nance Fair has returned from Newberry.—The State, 16th; Columbia item twenty years ago.

The moon has more room than the sun in Newberry, but the moon will soon have to change its quarters—four quarters, two halves and a whole full moon—to make room for the Commercial bank's new and improved place of business, because the bank, being a bigger institution, will outshine the moon.

Douglas, Chappell, Jones, Griffin, Graddick, Rodelsperger. Count 'em. A whole half dozen. Pick your man, the winner. Race is getting more interesting. For keeping them in mind, here's an easy lesson: Doug, Chap-Jo Grif, Rodel. Voters of Nos. 1 and 8 townships, which one of the six do you want for magistrate? Which will it be? Six big candidates all in the run; five will fall down, leaving up one.

Mr. Robert G. Wallace returned on Friday from the hospital, after a brief stay for examination. He is taking a home treatment for the benefit of his health.

Mr. P. B. Asbill fooled the reporter good the other day. Every now and then some fellow fools the reporter. Says Mr. Asbill: "Did you know there was a new baby at my house?" Come to find out it was young Otto Klettner's baby. The little family had moved over to rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Asbill. And Mr. Asbill showed by his talk and looks that he enjoys that baby. "What is home without a baby," anyhow?

Mrs. A. F. Webb and daughters, Gladys and Aubrey have gone to Newberry where they are the guests of Mrs. C. E. Perkins.—The State, 17th.

Defendants before the court here this week on charges of violating the prohibition law had rough sledding. In all cases where conviction followed, the court imposed chaingang sentence in addition to fines.—In report from Laurens court.

Mr. Wm. P. ("Dutch Weather Prophet") Houseal of Columbia was in the city Saturday to see Mrs. Houseal who is visiting here. He took advantage of having a day off, but had to hurry back to be on hand for the next proof reading for The State. Their many friends are always glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Houseal here where they spent so many profitable and happy years.

It is supposed that our wide awake furniture dealers will see to it that there will be a full supply of cradles and baby carriages on hand.

The 4th of July will soon be here. By that time we may have katey-dids and Newberry watermelons anyway. "The Lilliputian Wedding" from the Boundary Street school play showed up well in Fox News at the opera house Friday. The picture should and doubtless will increase interest to see scenes in Newberry streets soon to be on moving exhibition by Manager Wells.

Mr. John Shealy was showing how ravenous the boll weevil is. He had several of the weevils in a phial with bits of young cotton bolls, and the way those destroyers voraciously clung to the green bits exhibited a determination to conquer or die trying. The boll weevil is determined to ruin the cotton crop, remedy or no remedy. What are you going to do about it? Plant more cotton?

Maj. J. F. Caldwell, in his excellent story of "The Stranger," says of the leading character: "She was now enjoying, temporarily at least, that capacity of endurance which often comes to men—and oftener to women—after violent perturbation of the spirit." How true. As night brings out the stars, it takes suffering to bring knowledge that "sweet are the uses of adversity." Yes, indeed, one can really enjoy a "capacity of endurance," but it comes only after bitter experience. We all know that the sweetest songs come from the singer whose heart feels the force and power of the words she sings.

The Boy Scouts returned Friday afternoon from Camp Herbert in gay spirits, showing that they enjoyed the life.

Newberry certainly put across several brilliant weddings during "the run." The whirlwind campaign was fast, and good while it lasted; but the storm has subsided and there is a lull—although there are some little ripples yet on the little sea.

Mrs. W. E. Pelham, Sr., Mrs. Jas. C. Kinard, Mrs. L. W. Mills, Mrs. E. P. Knotts and Mr. F. H. Campsen have returned from the hospitals in Columbia.

Mrs. S. J. Derrick has been spending a while in Lexington at the home of her relative, Hon. D. F. Efrd. Mrs. G. W. Pearson returned last week from a visit to Charleston. Mr. Thomas Hamm returned last week to Utica, N. Y. He was accompanied as far as Philadelphia by his sister, Miss Rose Hamm, who will spend several months with her brother, Mr. George Hamm, in that city and in taking special courses in music in New York or Boston. Miss

Hamm is already an accomplished pianist, gifted in music.

Miss Aurelia Mayer left Tuesday morning for Birmingham, where she and several friends from Sumter county joined the Elliott Touring party for a western tour of 24 days to visit old Mexico, grand canyon, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Yellowstone Park for four days, Pike's Peak, Denver and other places of interest. On the return trip she will visit her brother, Mr. J. M. Maye, and family in Atlanta.

Mrs. E. H. Leslie, Mrs. T. O. Stewart and Miss Olivia Stewart attended the Comalander-Leslie wedding in Chapin Saturday afternoon.

There will be a free entertainment at Bush River school house, Friday night, June 25, 1922. Ice cream will be sold for the benefit of the school.

Mr. Strother Paysinger caught up with the young man that stole his bicycle. Getting on the trail he and Policeman Inabinet went to Saluda Friday afternoon and scented the party wanted. After making sure they were right they returned home to go back Sunday for their man, returning Sunday night with Alvin Kikland, putting him in the lockup. On warrant issued Monday morning he was taken before Magistrate Douglas and in default of bail was placed in jail to await trial at the present term of court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. White and Miss Elizabeth White attended the Welling-White marriage in Abbeville Sunday morning.

A. F. Webb is spending the week-end in Newberry with his family, who is visiting Mrs. C. E. Perkins.—The State, 18th.

Some people didn't see the point in the paragraph of the political pallbearers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fincher Hipp's baby boy has recovered from the critical illness caused by inhaling talcum powder. After the doctor in Greenville had pronounced the case hopeless and the little boy was brought home Dr. E. H. Moore worked faithfully and ably until at last he had the satisfaction of restoring the baby to the anxious parents, and now "it is well with the child."

In speaking of the death of Mr. J. S. Parkman of Johnston at the Baptist hospital in Columbia The State of the 18th says: "Mr. Parkman was a faithful member of the Baptist church and leaves a large number of friends in Newberry and elsewhere in the state to mourn his death."

Miss Louise Thomas of Rock Hill is visiting Miss Caroline Weeks. She is the daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Thomas, pleasantly remembered in Newberry during the connection with Newberry college of Dr. Thomas, at present a member of the faculty of Winthrop.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutledge returned from their honeymoon trip Sunday and after a brief visit to the bride's mother, Mrs. Minnie Wallace, and other relatives, left on Monday for their home in Florence. Mr. Rutledge is president of Mott's Business school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Niles returned from their bridal tour, but didn't stay long in Newberry on their visit to the bride's mother, Mrs. J. R. Green and other relatives, as Editor Niles had to get back to Camden to catch up with his newspaper work.

Miss Edrie Boyleston and Messrs. Bridge and Demont Boyleston of Greenville spent the week-end at the home of their uncle, Mr. Reed C. Boyleston.

Now here come two more Newberry boys to add to the marriage excitement: Irvine Leslie at Chapin and Julian White in Abbeville, as will be seen by brief notices in another column.

There are three candidates for congress from this district: Fred H. Dominick, present and future congressman; Samuel H. Sherard and E. P. McCravy, aspirants.

Mrs. A. T. Wilson, Miss Mary Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray of Clinton visited Mrs. A. C. Thomasson Sunday.

M. Jack Dunstan of Columbia paid a visit to Newberry Sunday to see his parents and other relatives.

Mr. L. D. Stone left Sunday for Richmond, accompanying the number of Newberryans to the Confederate reunion. After the reunion he will visit in Baltimore, Washington and other cities.

Mr. E. Roy Stone of Greenville, one of the leading insurance men in the state, is in Newberry conferring with his fine local representative, Mr. C. B. Spinks. Mr. Stone also likes to scent political news, at which he is a pretty good prognosticator.

Mr. William Turner is visiting in Ninety-Six as "dad," a fine little son having arrived in that city Sunday at the home of Mrs. Turner's mother, where Mrs. Turner is on a visit. When Mr. Turner runs back to Newberry the boys will be giving him congratulations on his good fortune.

Mrs. P. B. Padgett and daughter, Miss Mattie Lee Padgett, of Anthon, Fla., arrived Saturday. Mrs. Padgett returned home Saturday night, while Miss Padgett will extend her visit to her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Thomasson, Jr.

Mrs. Robert G. Wallace, Jr., and baby will return on Thursday from their visit to relatives in Hendersonville.

Mrs. Carl T. Julien went as far as Columbia Monday with Mr. Julien's little half brother, Lloyd Allyn, who was returning to his home in Charlotte after a visit here.

The First Baptist church of Newberry will hold a picnic at Caldwell Springs, this county, Thursday.

Mr. Joe Feagle, who had his left thumb split to the bone by one of the needles of a reaper while cutting grain, is getting along all right with his wounded hand.

Mr. Jas. L. Aull and family, with Mr. and Mrs. James R. Davidson and Mrs. Trench Q. Boozer, motored Sunday afternoon to Ninety Six, Greenwood, Laurens and Clinton.

Dr. E. H. Bowman and family will move, on or about the first of July, to the former residence of Mr. James A. Burton and family, the house which Mr. Burton some time ago had removed from the corner of Harrington and Glenn street, now undergoing repairs. Mr. B. F. Goggans and family will then move to the house which will be vacated by the Bowmans.

The director for the Lee Memorial fund acknowledges contributions in Sunday's State, among them being Drayton Rutherford chapter for $35; Calvin Crozier chapter, $25, and the Dicket-Schumpert chapter for $10.

Mrs. W. W. Bourke and Miss Vera Mae Starr motored to Newberry for a few days' visit to Ms. W. C. Ruff and Mrs. John Ruff.—The State, 18.

Mr. A. H. Blease has returned to Newberry from Ware Shoals.

Mr. Henry M. Player and his bride will not return to Newberry, but will make their home in Columbia, where he is in the railroad business.

Mr. H. C. Burns of Wadesboro, N. C., came in Sunday to spend until Wednesday with his sister, Mrs. W. M. Thomas, and his brothers, Messrs. Jesse and Sam Burn.

Sheriff Blease went to Columbia Sunday to see Mrs. Blease at the Columbia hospital. He was accompanied by Mrs. Eugene Blease and Miss Colie Blease. We are glad to report that Mrs. Blease is better, although still quite sick.

Mr. Harry Dominick has returned from Washington after spending an enjoyable time with his congressman brother, Hon. Fred H. Dominick. He returned Sunday, only to leave on Monday for Asheville to attend the Cotton Seed Crushers' convention, representing the Southern Cotton Oil company of Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McDowell motored to Columbia Saturday night to see her mother, Mrs. E. B. Goldman, who is quite sick.

Girl baseball players will engage in a game with the Whitmire boy team this afternoon, Tuesday, in Whitmire at 5 o'clock.

Mr. George S. Dickett, general foreman of the special work at Balentine, was in the city Sunday.

Miss Emma Dissoy was returned to her home in Atlanta after a visit to her mother, Mrs. O. McR. Holmes.

July 6 will be a bigger day than "the 4th of July" to many people in Newberry.

Mr. Henry Paysinger of Greenville was seen in this city Saturday.

Setzler-Able

The State.

Pomaria, June 14.—A marriage of cordial interest to their many friends was that of Miss Narvis Rae Setzler and Johnnie James Able of Leesville, which was solemnized last Thursday at noon at the Pomaria Lutheran church. The Rev. A. L. Gunter of Gaffney, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

The church, decorated under direction of Mesdames A. L. Gunter and J. B. Bedenbaugh, was exceptionally artistic. The chancel and altar covered in white, had a pyramid of palms and ferns in the center with white pedestals on either side topped with baskets of shasta daisies, the handle tied with fluffy white tulle bows.

The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Edwin B. Setzler of Newberry. Mrs. Willie Charles of McCormick, sister of the bridegroom, sang "At Dawning" and "The Hour That Gave Me You," before the ceremony.

The bridesmaids were Miss Carrie Delle Huffman of Columbia and Miss Martha Shealy of Batesburg. Mrs. McKendree Barr of Leesville was dame of honor. The maid of honor was Miss Marion Setzler, sister of the bride.

Masters Homer Setzler, youngest brother of the bride, and Howard

Able, nephew of the bridegroom, dressed in white linen suits, carried flower baskets from which little Misses Margaret Johnson and Rebecca Bedenbaugh, attired in lovely white organdie dresses, strewed rose petals as a pathway for the bride. Little Miss Doris Charles of McCormick, niece of the bridegroom, daintily gownned in a fluffy frock of white organdie, preceded the bride, carrying the ring on a silver tray.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Thomas A. Setzler, was lovely in a Lucile model of old blue crepe, trimmed in gray, with accessories to match. Her costume was completed by a picture hat of leghorn and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

Dr. Karl Able of Batesburg acted as his brother's best man and the groomsmen were: Dr. John B. Setzler of Newberry, uncle of the bride; Dr. Felder Smith of Leesville and Dr. Sidney Riley of Lexington. The ushers were Thomas Setzler, Jr., S. C. Gordon of Andrews, brother and brother-in-law of the bride; Dr. G. B. Setzler of the University of Virginia, and Edwin B. Setzler, Jr., of Newberry.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Able motored to the mountains of North Carolina for a short wedding trip, before going to Leesville to make their home.

Mrs. Able is the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Setzler and for the past two years was a member of the faculty of Summerland college. Mr. Able is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Able of Leesville and is a prominent business man of that town.

Among the out-of-town guests besides those taking part in the wedding were: Willie Charles of McCormick, Mrs. John Able, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meetze and son, Mrs. H. F. Hendrix, Misses Helen and Lucile Hendrix, Mr. and Mrs. William Oxner, Mrs. Spann, Dr. P. E. Monroe and daughter, Mrs. Briggs, McKendree Barr of Leesville, Dr. George B. Cromer, Mr. and Mrs. Beale Cromer, D. E. B. Setzler, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shealy, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Dunn, Miss Elizabeth Neel of Newberry, Mrs. Lola Connor of Greenwood, Miss Ada Ruth Marriotte of Lander, Md., Miss Elberta Sease, Mrs. J. M. Sease, Mrs. Will Shealy and Marion Counts of Little Mountain, Mrs. S. C. Gordon and son of Andrews.

What's the Remedy

Probably in every county in this state and in other states one can hear the statement from some one that certain blind tigers have the protection of certain officers.

In certain cases, using the word "certain" rather freely, the statement is doubtless correct. Every now and then proof of the fact comes out.

In other cases the charge is not correct, it is a charge made on suspicion and out of malice.

But when one hears such a charge repeated almost day after day and by different persons every time there must be something in it. The old saying that where there is so much smoke there must be fire is a pretty safe proverb.

In such cases grand juries with a membership scattered over a county ought to be able to get at the facts. If the charges are unfounded an investigation will reveal the fact and the officers will not be hurt, rather they will be helped by the clean bill of health given by the grand jury. If the charges are true, then such officers should be removed.

More whiskey, we are told by officers who have had experience enough to justify their statements, is being sold in Greenwood county today than ever before in its history. Prior to the passage of the federal prohibition law there was not an illicit distillery in the county. One of two small outfits had been started but they did not run more than a few months before they were raided.

Today it is believed by those who ought to know there is made in Greenwood county not less than fifty gallons of whiskey a day, possibly more. At the boom time price for whiskey this is about two thousand dollars worth of booze being made in this county alone each day.

This does not count the stuff that come in here from the Sava-rash river swamps and other places. Most of these birds manage to get caught but the old standbys and old reliables in the home field continue to do business, not at the same stand always, but not far away.

The people of Greenwood county can stop or check the traffic if they want to.

What do they say?
